

CORDERLY WALL MOUNTED SYSTEM

SKU:4370

Looking for a more organized and efficient way to handle your tool cords? Consider Collins and our groundbreaking Corderly Cord Management system. As the first company to introduce this revolutionary product, Collins has changed the game when it comes to cord organization.

With our patented design, Collins has created a method that significantly reduces the likelihood of cords becoming tangled and keeps them off the floor, providing a more organized and efficient workspace. This innovative invention is available in multiple versions to cater to the needs of both stylists and barbers.

Not only does the Corderly keep cords off the floor, but it also offers flexibility in accommodating different tools, making it suitable for any professional. Additionally, it can be customized for either left or right-handed individuals, ensuring maximum comfort and ease of use.

Don't settle for messy, tangled cords any longer. Upgrade to the new Collins Corderly and experience the benefits of a more organized and efficient workspace.
